45	Exterior-Rated Television	Don't miss the big game while you're grilling or enjoying the outdoors. A fun, lifestyle-oriented feature that appeals to sports fans and entertainers.	Personalized ROI	$$

The Smart & Connected Home

#	Feature	Description	ROI	Cost
46	Automated Window Shades	Program shades to open with the morning sun and close for privacy at night. Effortless and energy-efficient. A luxury automation feature that adds convenience and a modern, high-tech feel.	Personalized ROI	$$$
47	Professional-Grade Wi-Fi	Flawless streaming, video calls, and connectivity in every corner of the house and yard. The invisible backbone of a modern home. No longer a luxury, but essential infrastructure. A robust system is a major selling point.	Foundational ROI	$$
48	Whole-Home Audio System	Fill your home with music. Play different songs in different rooms, all controlled from a single app. A desirable lifestyle feature for those who love music and entertaining.	Personalized ROI	$$$
49	Smart Lighting Control System	Create "scenes" for any activity—"Dinner," "Movie Night," "Welcome Home"—with the touch of a button. A sophisticated system that provides convenience, security, and a "wow" factor. Expected in luxury builds.	Moderate ROI	$$$
50	Pre-wiring for EV Charger	Future-proof your garage. Even if you don't have an electric vehicle now, the next owner likely will. Increasingly seen as a necessary feature. Makes the home more attractive to a growing market of EV owners.	High ROI	$
51	Integrated Security System	Peace of mind. Check cameras, lock doors, and get alerts from anywhere in the world. Security is a top priority for many buyers. A built-in, modern system adds significant value.	High ROI	$$
52	Smart Thermostat with Zones	Perfect temperature control in every part of the house, saving energy by not heating or cooling unused rooms. Buyers recognize this for both its comfort benefits and its potential for significant energy savings.	High ROI	$$
53	Centralized A/V Closet	A clean, organized solution that hides all the blinking lights and messy wires of your media equipment in one cooled closet. A mark of a professionally designed system that appeals to tech-savvy and organized buyers.	Foundational ROI	$$
54	Video Doorbell	See and speak to visitors at your front door from your phone, whether you're upstairs or on vacation. Now a standard security and convenience feature that most buyers expect.	High ROI	$
55	Water Leak Detection System	Can prevent a catastrophic flood by automatically shutting off the main water line the moment a leak is detected. An intelligent safety feature that offers peace of mind and can lead to insurance discounts.	Foundational ROI	$
56	Smart Air Purification System	Monitor and automatically improve your home's indoor air quality, reducing allergens and pollutants. A health and wellness feature that is becoming increasingly attractive to discerning buyers.	Personalized ROI	$$
57	Backup Generator Integration	Never lose power. The system automatically kicks in during an outage, keeping your lights, heat, and refrigerator on. A major value-add, especially in areas with frequent power outages. Provides security and peace of mind.	High ROI	$$$

Functional Luxury & Organization

#	Feature	Description	ROI	Cost
58	Custom Closet Systems	A calm, organized start to your day. Maximizes every inch of space with smart, tailored solutions for your wardrobe. Abundant, well-organized storage is a top priority for buyers. A custom closet can be a major selling point.	High ROI	$$
59	Dedicated Mudroom	The perfect "drop zone." A designated, durable space to contain coats, boots, backpacks, and sports gear. An essential feature for families, especially in climates with messy weather. A huge organizational benefit.	High ROI	$$
60	Second-Floor Laundry Room	Eliminates the chore of hauling heavy laundry baskets up and down stairs. Laundry is located where most of it is generated. A highly logical and practical feature that buyers overwhelmingly prefer.	High ROI	$$
61	Central Vacuum System	Quiet and powerful, with no heavy canister to lug around. Simply plug a lightweight hose into the wall. A built-in convenience that many buyers see as a luxury upgrade.	Moderate ROI	$$
62	Custom Built-Ins	Provide beautiful, integrated storage and display that feels original to the home, adding character and function. A hallmark of a custom home. Adds immense character and solves storage problems elegantly.	High ROI	$$
63	Solid-Core Doors	The weight and density reduce sound transmission between rooms, making the entire home feel quieter and more substantial. A subtle but powerful indicator of a quality build that discerning buyers and agents notice.	Foundational ROI	$
64	Soundproofing Insulation	Create a quiet home office for important calls or ensure the light sleeper in the family isn't disturbed. An invisible feature that greatly improves quality of life and signals a high-quality construction.	Foundational ROI	$
65	Pocket Doors	A brilliant space-saver in tight areas like bathrooms, closets, or laundry rooms where a swinging door would be awkward. A smart design solution that demonstrates thoughtful space planning.	Moderate ROI	$
66	"Drop Zone" with Charging	A small, designated area near an entrance for keys, mail, and charging devices, keeping countertops clutter-free. A simple, thoughtful feature that solves a common modern-day problem.	Moderate ROI	$

Curb Appeal & The Unseen Structure

#	Feature	Description	ROI	Cost
68	Metal or Architectural Roofing	Offers superior longevity and a striking aesthetic. Provides peace of mind for decades. A major upgrade that boosts curb appeal and signals durability and low future maintenance costs to buyers.	Moderate ROI	$$$
69	Premium Siding (Fiber Cement)	A beautiful, durable exterior that resists rot, pests, and fire, and holds paint far longer than wood. Offers a high ROI due to its significant impact on curb appeal, durability, and low maintenance.	High ROI	$$$
70	Oversized Custom Front Door	Makes a powerful first impression, setting the tone for the entire home with a sense of grandeur and quality. The front door is the focal point of the facade; a high-quality, unique door has a major impact on curb appeal.	High ROI	$$
71	Upgraded Garage Doors	Elevate your home's facade with carriage-style or modern glass-panel doors instead of standard builder-grade options. Garage doors can make up a large portion of a home's street-facing view. Upgrading them has a huge ROI.	High ROI	$$
72	Advanced House Wrap	Provides a superior barrier against air and water infiltration, leading to a more comfortable, energy-efficient, and durable home. An "invisible" mark of quality construction that leads to tangible benefits and appeals to savvy buyers.	Foundational ROI	$
73	Oversized Gutters & Downspouts	More effectively manage water to protect your foundation and landscaping, while adding a more substantial, architectural look. A functional upgrade that also enhances the home's robust aesthetic.	Foundational ROI	$
74	Stone or Brick Accents	Add timeless texture, character, and a sense of permanence to your home's exterior. Significantly boosts curb appeal and perceived value.	High ROI	$$$
75	Heated Driveway or Walkways	Forget shoveling. Melt snow and ice automatically for a safe, clear path all winter long. A game-changing luxury in snowy climates. A major "wow" factor and a huge selling point.	Personalized ROI	$$$$
76	High-Performance Windows	Triple-pane or specially coated windows make your home quieter and more comfortable while lowering energy bills. A significant quality-of-life and financial benefit that discerning buyers value highly.	Moderate ROI	$$$
77	Custom Address Numbers & Mailbox	A small, final touch of design polish that contributes to a cohesive and intentional exterior aesthetic. An inexpensive detail that elevates the overall look and signals attention to detail.	Moderate ROI	$

Entertainment & Specialty Spaces

#	Feature	Description	ROI	Cost
78	Home Theater	The ultimate immersive experience for movie nights, with a big screen, tiered seating, and professional sound. A major destination feature that is a huge draw for movie buffs and families.	Personalized ROI	$$$$
79	Wet Bar with Ice Maker	An essential feature for any dedicated entertainment space. Makes hosting parties effortless. Adds significant functionality and appeal to a finished basement or bonus room.	Moderate ROI	$$

81	Home Gym / Yoga Studio	A dedicated, properly equipped space to pursue your fitness goals without leaving the house. Health and wellness at home is a major trend. A dedicated gym space is a highly desirable feature.	Moderate ROI	$$
82	Dedicated Home Office	A quiet, organized, and professional space designed for focus and productivity in the age of remote work. In today's world, a well-designed home office is no longer a luxury but a near-necessity for many buyers.	High ROI	$$
83	Soundproof Music/Podcast Room	A space for creativity where you can be as loud as you need without disturbing the rest of the household. A highly valuable feature for musicians, content creators, or anyone needing acoustic isolation.	Personalized ROI	$$
84	Kids' Playroom with Unique Feature	A space dedicated to fun, with a feature like a climbing wall or built-in stage to spark imagination. Highly appealing to families with young children.	Personalized ROI	$$
85	Golf Simulator Room	Practice your swing year-round in your own home. A fantastic entertainment feature for golf lovers. The ultimate feature for a golf enthusiast; a major "wow" factor for a specific buyer.	Personalized ROI	$$$$
86	Pet Washing Station	A dedicated, raised tub with a sprayer, saving your back and keeping pet mess contained in the mudroom or garage. A thoughtful, practical feature that is highly attractive to dog owners.	Personalized ROI	$
87	Secret Room or Hidden Door	The ultimate conversation piece. A bookcase that swings open to reveal a hidden office, bar, or reading nook. While not adding functional value, its "wow" factor is off the charts and creates a memorable home.	Personalized ROI	$$

Elevated Finishes & Design Details

#	Feature	Description	ROI	Cost
88	Upgraded Hardware	The "jewelry" of your home. Solid, heavy hardware provides a tactile sense of quality every time you open a door or drawer. A subtle but powerful indicator of quality. Inexpensive materials can cheapen expensive cabinets or doors.	Moderate ROI	$
89	Statement Lighting	A beautiful chandelier or pendant acts as functional art, defining a space and creating ambiance. Can dramatically alter the feel and perceived value of a room. A key element in professional staging.	High ROI	$$
90	Custom Staircase	Transforms a purely functional element into a home's primary architectural feature. A major architectural upgrade that has a significant impact on the home's character and perceived value.	High ROI	$$$
91	Statement Interior Doors	Solid core, oversized, or unique doors (like barn doors) add character and improve sound insulation. Contributes to a feeling of substance and quality throughout the home.	Moderate ROI	$
92	Coffered or Beamed Ceilings	Adds architectural depth, character, and a sense of grandeur to a room with high ceilings. A classic sign of a custom, high-end build. Adds significant visual interest and value.	High ROI	$$
93	Upgraded Millwork	Oversized baseboards and intricate crown molding frame a room, giving it a polished, finished look. One of the most effective ways to make a home feel more luxurious and custom-built.	High ROI	$$
94	Built-in Shelving	Adds character and provides a stylish, integrated solution for storage and display without cluttering the floor. Shows thoughtful use of space and adds a custom feel that buyers appreciate.	Moderate ROI	$
95	Custom Hardwood Patterns	A herringbone or chevron pattern elevates a wood floor from a surface to a design statement. A high-design choice that adds a layer of custom sophistication.	Moderate ROI	$
96	Integrated "Vacpan"	Simply sweep debris to the vent, tap it with your foot, and it's whisked away. The ultimate convenience for kitchen cleanup. A clever and highly useful feature that people love once they see it in action.	Moderate ROI	$
97	Whole-Home Water Filtration	Better-tasting water from every tap. Reduces chlorine and contaminants for drinking, cooking, and showering. A health and wellness feature that is increasingly attractive to discerning buyers.	Moderate ROI	$$
98	Tankless Water Heater	Endless hot water—never run out during back-to-back showers. More energy-efficient and has a longer lifespan. A significant functional upgrade that buyers recognize for both its convenience and energy savings.	High ROI	$$
99	Interior Transom Windows	Allow natural light to flow between rooms (e.g., from a hallway into a windowless bathroom) while maintaining privacy. An architectural detail that adds character and light, making spaces feel brighter and more open.	Moderate ROI	$
100	Finished Garage	An epoxy floor, proper lighting, and finished walls turn the garage into a clean, functional extension of the home. Transforms the garage from a utility space into a workshop or home gym. Adds valuable, flexible living area.	High ROI	$$
101	Dumbwaiter	Effortlessly move groceries from the garage to the kitchen, or laundry between floors. A surprisingly practical luxury. A unique and highly useful feature, especially in multi-story homes. A major wow-factor for the right buyer.	Personalized ROI	$$$
